

Introduction:

Hello [Interior Designer's Name],

My name is [Your Name], and I hope this call finds you well. I came across your impressive work in interior design and couldn't help but notice that your business doesn't have an online presence yet.

Establishing Connection:

I've been following your projects and I'm genuinely impressed by the creativity and uniqueness you bring to each design. It got me thinking about how a beautiful online platform could showcase your portfolio and reach a wider audience.

Value Proposition:

Having a website can significantly elevate your business. It not only serves as a digital portfolio but also attracts potential clients who are actively searching for talented interior designers online. Imagine the impact of your work reaching a broader audience.

Website Features:

Now, what makes our offer even more exciting is that the website we design for you will have dedicated sections to showcase your stunning projects, an easy-to-use contact page, and even a space for client testimonials. It's a comprehensive platform that brings your work to life and makes it easy for potential clients to connect with you.

Addressing Concerns:

Now, I understand that the world of websites might seem overwhelming, but here's something that might make it even more appealing. For a limited time, we're offering an exclusive 80% discount to the first 10 clients who choose to enhance their online presence with us.

Customization:

Our approach is entirely personalized. We design websites that reflect your unique style and showcase your portfolio in the most captivating way. It's not just about having a website; it's about having a digital space that truly represents your brand.

Next Steps:

I'd love to discuss this further with you at your convenience. Could we schedule a brief call or meeting to explore how an online presence could enhance your business and take advantage of this limited-time offer?

Closing:

Thank you for your time, [Interior Designer's Name]. I'm confident that a well-crafted website, coupled with our exclusive 80% discount, and the specialized sections for showcasing your work, testimonials, and easy client contact, could make a significant difference for your business. Looking forward to the opportunity to chat further.
